What Section(s) Does the Bylaws Change Involve?

- Section III - County Central Committee

Detailed Reason for Change(s)

County Party infighting

Proposed New or Revised Content

A bylaw amendment to establish a requirement for peace and harmony within County Parties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE SOUTH DAKOTA REPUBLICAN PARTY:

Section 1. That a NEW SECTION be added to Section III:

10. County Harmony: The County Central Committee shall gather quarterly for a non-business meeting where members sit in a circle and sing Kumbaya. Purpose: To establish and maintain required peace and harmony within County Parties.

Time and Location: Time and location shall be set by the County Executive Board Members. Meetings may be held in conjunction with regular County Party business meetings, if approved by the County Central Committee using spirit fingers to make up-twinkle and down-twinkle votes.

Accoutrements: If any member in attendance owns an acoustic guitar, they shall bring the guitar to meetings and play music to compliment the singing of Kumbaya.

Time Out: If two (2) or more members fail to maintain peace and harmony, the members involved shall sit on a couch and hold hands for a period of not less than fifteen (15) minutes per incident.
